What it is...

The North Carolina Association of Student Councils is an organization of member school student councils. NCASC is affiliated with the National Association of Student Councils and the Alliance for Student Activities.

Its Mission...

The mission of the North Carolina Association of Student Councils is to promote the establishment and maintenance of effective student councils in the state and to provide opportunities to enhance student leadership development.

It provides...

- Opportunities for students to positively impact their peers, schools, districts, and communities.
- Leadership training opportunities at the district, state, regional, and national levels.
- Creation of networking opportunities for advisers.
- Information and new ideas to improve student activities.
- Connections among your school and others on the district, state, regional, and national levels.
