

NCASC Building a Legacy Award

The North Carolina Association of Student Councils honors new student councils that have met specified criteria and have actively supported the mission of the NCASC by awarding the council the NCASC Building a Legacy Award.

Purpose of the award

The NCASC Building a Legacy Award was created to recognize new NCASC member school Student Councils that have been a member school for three years or less and have actively supported the mission of the NCASC during that time. The award will be presented at the school's second or third NCASC state convention.

Requirements for the award

This award will be given to any new NCASC member school Student Council nominated by a current NCASC member school, preferably the school responsible for recruiting the new school to be a NCASC member.

To be eligible for nomination for the Building a Legacy Award, a student council must:

1. Be a paid member for a minimum of two years.
2. Send a delegation to at least two consecutive NCASC state conventions. The second convention can be the upcoming convention where the award will be presented.
3. Send a delegation to at least one NCASC Summer Leadership Workshop.
4. Do at least one of the following:
  - a. Send a delegation to a NCASC district fall conference.
  - b. Send a delegation to the NCASC Middle Level Workshop.
  - c. Support the NCASC State Charity, Victory Junction, by making a donation or attending the Victory Junction Workday.

Nomination for the award

To nominate a school, a member school must submit a nomination letter to the NCASC 1st Vice President. This letter must include a list of NCASC events attended or supported by the nominated school. The nomination letter will serve as verification of eligibility.

---

2019 Convention Recognition Information

---

Nomination letters must be emailed to the NCASC 1st Vice President no later than February 15, 2019 so certificates can be prepared in time for presentation at the Awards Ceremony during the State Convention.

Email Nominations to:            Colby Cochran            colbycochran53@gmail.com